

Biography
Karen Dalglish Seal
Medina County Texas Democrat Party Chair

Karen Dalglish Seal, Chair of the Medina County Democratic Party as of November 2023, is an attorney with over 40 years of experience in Special Education, having worked as a teacher, administrator, advocate, and lawyer. Since 2000, she has focused her legal practice on defending the rights of individuals with disabilities. Karen holds a Doctorate degree in law and a master's degree in educational administration. She brings both professional and personal experience to her work in special education, juvenile law, and disability rights. Given her background, Karen has spoken at national, state, and local seminars throughout the country on the subject of children with special needs. Karen also has a solid background in the environmental community. She has been a member of the Sierra Club since the 80's and was the legal chair for the Lone Star Chapter for five years. She unites Democrats, empowers future leaders, and fights for what matters most—affordable healthcare, strong public schools, good jobs, reliable infrastructure, clean and plentiful natural resources like water in rural communities.
